

Sheila Miyoshi Jager, program director of East Asian studies at Oberlin College, speaks about "Brothers at War: The Unending Conflict in Korea" on October 24, 2013, at the Mershon Center.

Sheila Miyoshi Jager has authored three books, including Narratives of Nation Building in Korea: A Genealogy of Patriotism (M.E. Sharpe, 2003), Ruptured Histories: War, Memory and the Post-Cold War in Asia (Harvard University Press, 2007), and Brothers At War: The Unending Conflict in Korea (W.W. Norton/Profile Books, 2013).

Sheila Miyoshi Jager spoke on her latest book, which traces the story of Korean competition and conflict -- and Great Power competition and conflict -- over the peninsula: an unending war between two "brothers" with ramifications for the rest of the world.
